

Unleash the potential of communities in your company!

With webinars, workshops and the platform of talee

Offers by talee stand for a tangible corporate culture and the feeling of a lively community. We support you in shaping your corporate community!

Are you looking for basic or expert knowledge about corporate culture? Then our webinars and workshops are just right for you!

In webinars you learn about practice-proven basics free of charge. The workshops provide you with concrete recommendations for action and offer you to exchange knowledge with like-minded people from other companies.

Are you looking for a tool for your corporate community? With the talee platform you get a tool to organise event formats in companies, departments or teams and to network regularly.

Enabling engagement

Whether webinar, workshop or platform: Our focus is always on ensuring that everyone can contribute. From listening and discussing to actively shaping.

Experience networking

Networking creates the basis for innovation - the key to entrepreneurial and personal success. We promote networking among our participants in all our offers.

Shaping together

Our customers are always part of our community. We design together and develop individual solutions and offers.
